FOREWORD

Seventy-five years ago the first students to finish Central High School graduated in the old Coates Opera House. Central was then a four-room building at Eleventh and Locust Streets.

In 1872, a one-story frame structure just south of the original building was established. Since then, Central has been housed in four successive buildings, and in 1915 was moved to its present location.

We have tried to portray Central High School as it was in 1872 and through its development to 1947. It is your school and, by the same token, this is your book. We hope you like it.

The Co-Editors.

CENTRAL of YESTER

YEARS and THIS YEAR

MISS HENRY RETIRES

Miss Coah Henry

After having served eight years as supervisor of art in Independence, Mo., Miss Coah Henry come to Central in 1910. Mr. Cammack was its principal at that time and Mr. Dubach came to teach history. When Mr. Cammack was made Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Holmes succeeded him, and Miss Henry worked with him until 1920 when Mr. Dubach became principal. She was head of the Art Department throughout his administration and had one year under Mr. Clement's principalship, retiring in July, 1946.

Besides these years of successful teaching and making of friends with administrators, teachers and many boys and girls in Kansas City, she had won recognition as an artist and has so established herself. She is indeed outstanding in her chosen field. She was a member of Women Writers and Sculptors of New York and many of her paintings have been exhibited in New York, Chicago and Washington, D. C., as well as in various local centers.

We wish Miss Henry much joy and success during her time of leisure. With her keen sense of humor and ready wit, she will continue to paint colorful memories upon the hearts of those with whom she comes in contact.

FACULTY

W. W. Clement, Principal

Our school is the residuary legatee of the name and fame of the Central High School which flourished for many years at Eleventh and Locust. When we came to our new home in 1915, we assumed custody not only of the archives of Old Central and its impressive accumulation of trophies, both literary and athletic, but we appropriated as our very own its sacred traditions and lofty ideals of sound scholarship and high endeavor. These we think we have guarded well and have given added luster. As we bid farewell to the Class of '47, our seventy-fifth graduating class, we are confident they carry with them the spirit of Central High School, the training necessary to success, and the will to work for the common good.

We of the current faculty and student body account ourselves fortunate in being heirs to the fruitful years that have gone before and even more fortunate in having the opportunity to add to the splendid record of achievement of the eighty years that are history. In this dynamic age, no limit need be set to our ambitions and hopes for ourselves and for our school. Let us go forward.

FACULTY

This year marks an important milestone in the history of Central High School. It is her 75th commencement. This edition of the CENTRALIAN contains, in pictures, the story of this year. You who buy this book will often turn its pages in the years ahead.

You will, in memory, live again this year of 1946-47. Has it been a good year? Let us hope that it has, and that you can remember your achievements with pride. Will each Senior plan to beat his record at Central with the record which he will build year by year from now on? You underclassmen have the opportunity to improve your records at Central. Will you do it?

My best wishes are for each of you.

The time—1947. The place—the ballroom of a downtown hotel where the class of '47 is holding its reunion. The "celebrities" of that class have arrived and are talking over old times. The conversation has swung back to the year 1943 when they were freshmen and the class was led by Kathryn Feldmeyer, president; Dorothy Shearer, vice-president; Thelma Sudvarg, secretary; Richard Reid, treasurer. According to custom, the freshmen became sophomores and went on the long journey to the building.

IN MEMORIAM

It was with deep regret that Central High School students and teachers learned this fall of the death of Joanne Wolkey and Harley Butner. Both enjoyed the respect and affection of many friends here.

Joanne was well known for her interest in out-of-door games. Her friends will always remember her quiet and courteous ways and her sincere wish to be known as a good sport.

Harley has been greatly missed in Trouvere Club and the Concert Choir. He was an outstanding personality in both of these organizations and a student of high caliber who would have meant much to his school.

The Concert Choir, a select group of 80 mixed voices in the vocal department of Central, has steadily progressed under the capable direction of Willard Schmitt. It sings at church services, school programs, club meetings and other occasions. The selections of music include sacred, classical, semi-classical, secular, folk songs, negro spirituals and popular numbers.

The choir has sung for several events this year, including the Missouri State Teachers' Convention, a broadcast of Christmas music, a supper at the Southeast Presbyterian Church, the lecture of Ellis Arnall, the Music Festival of all the high school choirs, and the highlight of the year—the Spring Concert. The Concert Choir has become a beautiful and desirable part of the activities at Central.

The Girls' Choir is a chorus of 80 girls' voices under the direction of Mr. Schmitt. They sing three and four-part music, both with accompaniment and without. This choir has sung for several school programs, the Open House in the fall, the Christmas assembly program of music and the Spring Concert. The members of the Girls' Choir are seniors, juniors and sophomores who have been chosen from the general music classes for the ability they have displayed.

The Central Singers are twelve Concert Choir members who have organized into an ensemble which sings old English madrigals by candlelight, in typical fashion. The members are a very select group, chosen for their musical ability, their deep interest in music and their love for this type of singing.

SPRING PLAY

"The Fighting Littles," by Caroline Francke, concerns a family with opinions of their own and the temperament to express themselves. Each Little has his own idea of the way life should be lived, and all of them say so. Throughout this delightful comedy one escapade leads to another, each more spectacular than the last. The explosive Mr. Little becomes more exasperated at each new affair of his daughter, Goody, and lets Mrs. Little, his peace-loving wife, know it in no uncertain terms. Then there is Ham Ellers, Goody's boy friend! Henriette arrives from the South to complicate matters.

Central's annual variety night, "News Capers," was presented November 22 and 23. In order to produce this "greatest show on earth," J. Wellington Moneybags searched for talent in the North, South, East and West. In the North he found such performers as Frank Koger, Phil Baker, Gary Olson, Jack Studer, Margaret Watson, Jim George, Larry Crosby, Dorothy Shearer and Earline Mountjoy. The East offered such talent as Cassius Street, Doris Mott, Antoinette Calia, Wilma Curvan, Barbara Ellis, Gene Kelsay, Lonnie Eye, Delores Durrett, Pat Liston and Beverly McElroy. In the South J. Wellington encountered Archie Bell, Bob Russell, LaVonne Ludwig, Bill Parks, Leona Tinsley, Jess Cockrum and Opal Tussey. The West included the following talent: Earla McKinley, Pat McLain, Barbara Eggleson, Suzzanne Francis, Joy Reese, Peggy Redl and Jack Snyder.

The French Choir, under the direction of Madge Wardell, French instructor, sang three selections. Willard Schmitt led the Concert Choir in the performance.

These acts, under the direction of Willard Schmitt, combined to make this year's variety night a great success. Thanks for the script and for student management go to the eight co-ordinators: Floyd Blair, Jerry Chedester, Carolyn Furnish, Dan Henkin, Clarence Logan, Mary Modlin, Joyce Powell and Mary Sue Timmons. The instrumental music was under the direction of M. L. Cater.

THE HI-Y PURPOSE

"To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian Character."

THE HI-Y PLATFORM

1. CLEAN SPEECH 2. CLEAN SCHOLARSHIP 3. CLEAN LIVING 4. CLEAN ATHLETICS

Central Hi-Y continued to expand in 1946-47. A fourth chapter, the Junior Beta Chapter, was organized in the fall under the leadership of J. Max Kruwel. Sgt. Herman F. Byram, a newcomer to Central, took over the duties from acting sponsor Myron Rybolt, as sponsor of the Senior Chapter. Mr. McDaniel, who completed twenty years with Hi-Y in January, sponsored the Sophomore Chapter, and Mr. Waterhouse continued with the Junior Alpha Chapter.

All chapters continued their plan of study and the understanding of other religious faiths. They visited a Catholic, Jewish, Protestant and Greek orthodox church during the year.

In the fall Hi-Y sold Central football schedule pencils and helped the Linwood Y to purchase a sound movie machine. A fine program booklet was published, with all chapters having their program planned for a full semester in advance. The highlight of the fall semester was a Father and Son Banquet with Dr. L. David Cowie as speaker.

A Central Hi-Y basketball team, coached by Sgt. Byram, played in the city-wide Hi-Y league.

For the second year Central Hi-Y sponsored a series of four pre-Easter programs for the student body, using the theme, "One World—One Cross." The series was an outstanding success.

At the annual Mother and Son Banquet, Central Hi-Y chose to recognize two of its most faithful leaders, Mr. McDaniel and Mr. Waterhouse, who were awarded the National Jewelled Hi-Y Pin for outstanding service to Hi-Y.

For the World Youth Fund of the Y. M. C. A., the Central Hi-Y Club raised more than a hundred dollars. Fourteen Hi-Y members served as leaders of younger boys' clubs in the Y. M. C. A. Gra-Y program in the elementary schools of the Central district. Hi-Y boys served as umpires, coaches and scorekeepers for the Gra-Y softball league.

With weekly meetings of all chapters carefully programmed with speakers, discussions, movies and trips, the Central Hi-Y had a very successful and worthwhile year.

As a part of the largest youth organization in the world, the Central chapter of the Junior Red Cross has had a very active year under the leadership of the Junior Red Cross Council. This council, organized in September, is composed of one representative from each home room. Duane Zook is president of the council and Joy Reese, the secretary.

Sixty-three educational gift boxes were filled in October for children overseas. In December, thirty-nine Christmas boxes went from Central to our hospitalized veterans in Excelsior Springs and Wadsworth. Five thousand nine hundred seals were sold in the annual sale of Tuberculosis Seals, and the members of the Junior Red Cross Council also assisted in the chest X-ray project, undertaken for the first time this year at Central.

In the annual enrollment for service, Central students contributed $658.36, the third largest amount given by a public school. This money goes into a service fund which is used to carry on the rehabilitation of children abroad, to provide gifts and holiday articles for our soldiers at home and overseas, and to sponsor a convalescent home for rheumatic fever patients here in Kansas City.

Thus the Junior Red Cross remains mobilized in spirit, even though the war emergency has passed. It is a powerful force for better world understanding, an important factor in meeting needs at home.

FOOTBALL

Opening the 1946 football season, the Central Blue Eagles brought forth a small but spirited squad, and with only three returning lettermen and two weeks of practice, sought to take on the Wyandotte Bulldogs.

Central, the dark house of the league, held a heavier Wyandotte foe to a slim 7 points. In the waning minutes of the game, Central drove within 3 yards of a touchdown, but dropped a hard football game, 7-0.

Seeking revenge and entering Interscholastic League competition, the Eagles were entertained by the Paseo Pirates the next week end. After penalties and bad breaks, Jerome Willingham, Eagle quarterback, raced around left end in the second quarter for a 6-0 lead at the half. Soon becoming overconfident, the Eagles let down, and Paseo came back to tie it up with a long desperation pass into the end zone. The teams finished the game near the 50 marker in a 6-6 deadlock.

Still seeking a victory, the Eagles drove across five touchdowns against a lighter Southeast squad. The first two were called back on penalties, while the third touchdown and the first actual score came when Carl Brown blocked a Knight kick and recovered the ball in the end zone. Two more touchdowns were accounted for by Clarence Darrah, with the assistance of Junior Wren. Southeast scored once to make it a 21-7 ball game for Central.

The up and down ways of the Blue Eagles were definitely on the up the next week end, when the Manual Cardinals were trounced 26-7. With Darrah, Webster and Wren scoring the touchdowns, everything was definitely in favor of Central. Playing a fine defensive game were Jim and Claude Brown, who allowed the Cardinals only a few yards.

With a championship thought in mind, the Eagles were pitted against the league-leading Southwest Indians, but the Indians left the stadium remaining the league leaders after crushing Central 26-0. Bad breaks, faulty blocking and carelessly thrown passes turned the tide against the Eagles.

Luck still against them, the Blue Eagles fought second-place Northeast to a 26-7 loss. Although leading 7-6 at the start of the fourth period, the Eagles were first to be exhausted and three rapid touchdowns by the Vikings made Susie and Sonny Centralite very unhappy.

Definitely rated as a team on which one couldn't make predictions, Central came back the next week to dish out a 26-0 defeat to the Bears of East High. Using a passing attack, Darrah scored three touchdowns while J. Willingham waltzed 45 yards on a punt return for another 6 points. On the receiving end of most of the passes were Clarence Darrah and Carl Brown, while Jim Brown, Bill Savidge and Claude Brown displayed All-Star talent in playing a brilliant defensive game, allowing East to gain only 3 yards from scrimmage.

The Central Eagles, in third place, ended the season with the Westport Tigers, in probably the most thrilling and exciting game of the year. Westport scored first when Nate Apple returned a Central punt 30 yards for a 6-0 lead, which advanced the ball to Westport's 15-yard stripe to set up Central's only touchdown. Ken Webster then threw a pass to Clarence Darrah in the end zone to tie up the game 6-6. Near the end of the game Westport had the ball on the 2-yard line of Central, when they fumbled and Kenny Webster recovered.

To climax the season Jim Brown received an All-Star rating, while Claude Brown received a second team All-Star rating. Carl Brown, Bill Savidge, Junior Wren and Ken Webster were all given honorable mention.

Central's underclassmen came through a very profitable season, gaining invaluable experience that will make them "tops" as future varsity players.

The first game of the season found the Central Eaglets in a thrilling victory over the Paseo Pirates, 19-14. The game was a see-saw affair until Hammond caught a Central pass and raced for the winning tally.

Coming back a week later, Central's Seconds were caught on the small end of a 19-14 count against the Southeast Knights.

The Eaglets again came back on the winning side of the league by trouncing Manual, 17-0. The Redbirds were continually thrown for losses as Central came through victorious.

The Southwest Indians came to our field to defeat Central in one of the most hard-fought battles of the season. Final score: Southwest 13, Central 6.

The Eaglets' hopes for finishing in the first division were hit hard as the Northeast Vikings defeated them, 13-6. Completely discouraged from two previous losses by small counts, the Eaglets were then crushed by the heavy and speedy East Bears, 39-0.

Facing the Westport underclassmen the following week on the Tigers' field, Central tied the speedy team in a heartbreaker, 6-6.

At the end of the season many of the fundamentals and earlier mistakes of the underclassmen were ironed out by rigid drills and practices, led by Coach Clifford Cornelius.

1st Row—J. Willingham, K. Webster, C. Darrah, R. Jenkins, R. Russell.

The 1946-47 Blue Eagles, under Coach Frank Guemple, was without doubt one of Central's outstanding basketball teams. Bolstered by four returning lettermen, Bob Jenkins, Clarence Darrah, Ed Silverman and Ken Webster, the team won the respect of every other basketball team in the city and placed second in the Interscholastic League.

The Blue Eagles led off by downing the Central Alumni, 58-48. Forward Bob Jenkins sparked the attack with fourteen points, while guard Ed Silverman tallied twelve.

In their next game, the Eagles trounced the Blue and Gold of De La Salle to the tune of 41-29. The game was under complete control from the initial gun as Clarence Darrah displayed his speed on the court and "Big Ken" Webster demonstrated his usual outstanding defensive work. "Big Len" Koenigsdorf was the high scorer with thirteen points.

Paced again by Koenigsdorf, the Blue Eagles' towering center, the Central quintet defeated Lillis by a 55-38 score. Koenigsdorf was again high man with five field goals and four charity tosses to total fourteen points.

Central next met the Hogan Rams, downing them by a score of 42-33. Although the Rams led the first half, the Blue Eagle quintet bounced back in the last half and went on to win in easy fashion. Again Koenigsdorf was the leading scorer with sixteen points. After this game Central stood as the only team in the Interscholastic League which had not been defeated in pre-season games.

Central went down to its first defeat at the hands of a powerful Wyandotte five, 43-35. Jenkins paced the Eagles with thirteen points, while Koenigsdorf dropped in seven.

The Eagle quintet, accented by height and speed, had a grand start in league play by handing a 37-24 defeat to the Paseo Pirates. When the final gun sounded, each Eagle starter had six points with the exception of Darrah and Silverman, who had tallied eight.

In the following game the Central five defeated the Manual Cardinals in one of the most thrilling games of the entire season. Silverman and Darrah scored for Central while Webb paced Manual. With the Crimson on the short end of a 49-40 score, the game ended. Darrah led the scorers with sixteen points while Jenkins tallied twelve.

Central took over the Interscholastic League lead the next week by defeating the Southwest Indians, 38-26, in an extremely fast game.

During the first half of a hard East-Central game, the Bears handed the Eagles quite a scare by leaving them on the small end of a 15-14 score at the end of the first half. In the second half Central began to roll as Koenigsdorf, Silverman and Darrah pushed in the buckets. At the end of the game Central was leading, 35-24. Koenigsdorf was again the high scorer for Central, racking up eighteen points, with Darrah and Silverman each getting seven.

Central, although playing an extremely hard game, was nosed out by the Ward Cyclones, 30-29. The Blue Eagles lost the league championship in their next game when they were defeated by the Northeast Vikings. At the end of the first period Central trailed, 13-8. With Webster playing brilliantly on defense, the Vikings were held to one point in the third quarter, while the Eagles dropped in six. The score was tied up 24-24 at the end of the third period. The Vikings, paced by Bob Darnell, rallied in the last quarter and went on to win by a 35-27 score. Darrah and Koenigsdorf scored seven points each for Central.

With but one game left to play, the Blue and White, led by Bob Jenkins, defeated the Westport Tigers, 53-44. At the half-time, Central trailed, 15-22. In the third period each team made nineteen points; Jenkins tallied eight, Koenigsdorf five. During the fourth quarter, Carby, Tiger forward, fouled out of the game, and Central moved into the lead. Bob Jenkins scored a total of nineteen points.

In the last game of the season Central defeated the Southeast Knights, 44-39. Koenigsdorf scored a total of twenty-one points for Central, with Webster and Silverman showing fine defensive play.

The season over, Central ranked in second place in the Interscholastic League standings. Their complete record showed ten wins and three defeats.

Central was honored when Bob Jenkins, Blue Eagle forward, was awarded a first team All-Star berth for his outstanding play. Leonard Koenigsdorf, center, and Clarence Darrah, forward, were awarded second team All-Star recognition.

Coach Guemple awarded letters to Bob Jenkins, Clarence Darrah, Leonard Koenigsdorf, Ed Silverman, Kenny Webster, Jack Donahue, Willard Kresse, Bob Blaine, Lee Luther and Bob Russell. Jerome Willingham received a reserve letter.

BASKETBALL

Central's second team basketball squad got things under way by defeating the De La Salle Cadets, 29-14. Rush hit eight points while Willingham scored seven.

The second game of the season pitted the Eaglets against the very evenly matched Lillis Irish. The Central underclassmen emerged victorious with a 24-23 score.

The next game found the Eaglets defeating the Hogan Rams, 45-28. Leading all the way, the entire Central squad saw action.

Playing on the Wyandotte court, Central was handed its first defeat of the season by the Bulldogs, 41-29. Paul Willingham led the scoring with nine points.

Opening the '47 Interscholastic League play, the Central Seconds were defeated by Paseo, 30-28. The Crimson of Manual were then in turn defeated by the Eaglets, carrying Central to the top of the league.

In the following game Central lost to the Indians of Southwest, 40-43. Morris dropped in fifteen points.

Central evened their percentage the next week by defeating the East Cubs, 36-24. Sparking the Eaglet attack were Morris, Willingham and Rush.

SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL

Top Row—H. Aero, J. Hammond, R. Czarlinsky, M. Peterson, B. Rush, J. Lawrence, J. Snapp.
1st Row—J. Coomes, R. Older, P. Willingham, P. Rhoades, J. Purcell.

Assistant Coach, Clifford Cornelius

Chucking league play the following week, the Central quintet walloped the Ward Cyclones, 28-24.

Hitting the season peak, the underclassmen of Central edged out the Northeast Vikes, 28-22. Bob Rush tallied eleven points.

In a topsy-turvy battle on the Southeast court, Central added another victory to its record by a score of 52-41. Bob Rush was again high man with nineteen points.

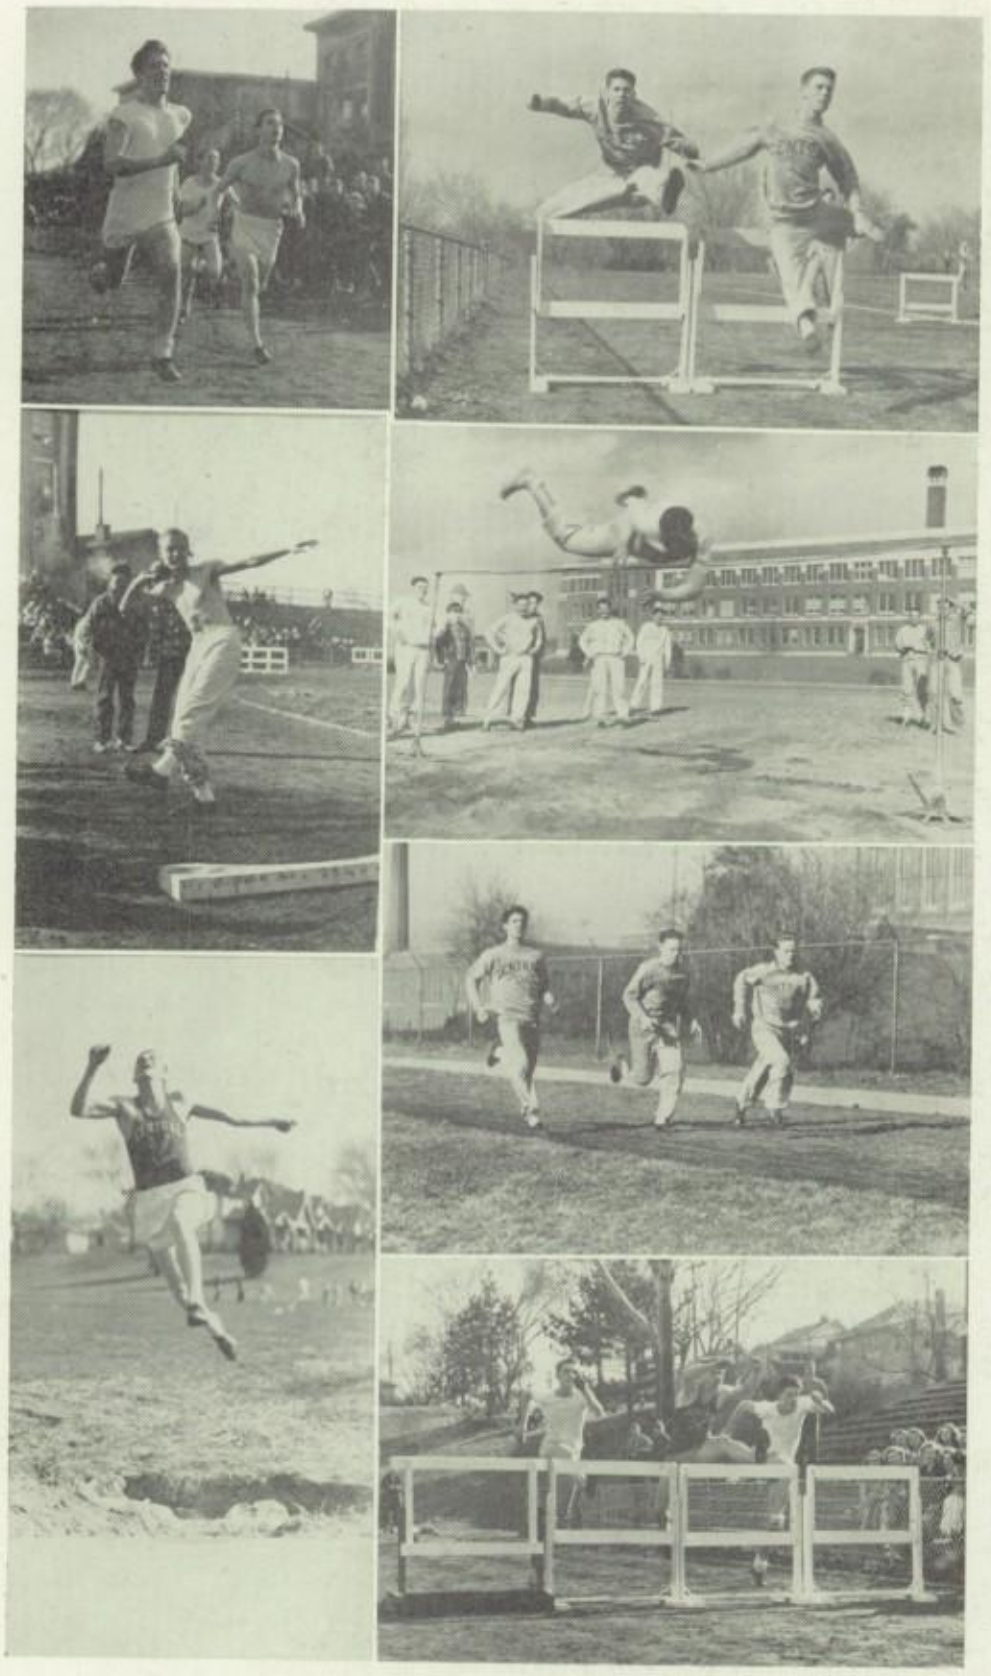
Ending the basketball season against Westport, the Eaglets defeated the Tigers, 30-23. Pacing the Central team were Morris, Snapp and Fair.

TRACK

The spring of 1947 brought forth a very hopeful track season with the return of eight lettermen, one for almost every event.

The first meet of the season was the indoor track meet at the Municipal Auditorium in which Central came through with a fourth place tie. With the help of the eight lettermen, Wayne White, 100- and 220-yard dash man; Carl Brown, low and high hurdler; Everet Crawford, quarter miler; Jerry Holmberg, half miler; Walter Cummickel, half miler; Clarence Darrah, dash man; Bob Jenkins, pole vaulter, and Joe Snare, quarter miler, Central entered in five events and managed to place in two. Carl Brown ran in a close third in the 60-yard low hurdles, while Jerry Holmberg came in second in the half mile, losing only to Breidenthal or Northeast.

Central's track schedule for outdoor meets includes Paseo, Manual, East, Southwest, Southeast, Northeast, the city meet, and then the climax of the season, the state meet. The first meet of the season comes with Paseo April 3, when Central will be well represented in every meet by the return of many lettermen as well as other underclassmen and seniors who will furnish much competition in the interclass meet on March 28-29. Probable representatives in each event will be White and Darrah, 100 and 220 men; Chedester, Brown and Trantham, low and high hurdlers; Crawford, Ozburn and West, quarter milers; Holmberg and Cummickel, half milers; Jenkins and Russell, pole vaulters; Webster and Wren, shot putters, and Darrah, Brown and White, broad jumpers. With this combination Central has a fine chance of winning the 1947 track championship.



Top Row—Dash men, W. White, C. Darrah, W. Fulton; Taking the high hurdles, C. Brown and J. Chedester.
3rd Row—B. Leforgee putting the shot; B. Blaine high jumping.

GOLF

This year the annual high school golf tournament at Swope Park Course No. 1 was postponed because of bad weather. We are hoping for ideal conditions and a good tournament this spring under the direction of Mr. Blackford.

The team has several returning lettermen who have shown their worth, and with some new material Central has hopes for a winning golf team.

The members are Charles Dietrich, captain; Jim Henderson, Floyd Blair, David Cockrell, Chester Black, Wallace Cox and Jack Caligari.

Here's wishing the team a swell season!

TENNIS

The transfer of Mr. Alexander from Central to Junior College at the time when plans were in the making for fall tennis caused delay in getting this activity under way. Mr. Dentel consented to take over the duties as tennis manager and met at once with eleven boys who were interested in this sport. Because of the anticipation of an early closing of the city courts, the Fall Interscholastic Meet was called at the Plaza courts two days after this first meeting. As there was insufficient time for preliminary playoffs, players to represent Central were chosen by the group in a meeting with Mr. Dentel.

Those selected to play in the singles were Bob Bengert and Jack Snyder. By scores of 6-3, 3-6, 6-4, Snyder was eliminated in the quarter-finals by Norman Apple of Southwest who won the meet and was also Interscholastic Champion in 1945. Bengert was defeated (6-2, 6-0) by Barnes of Westport who went to the semi-finals. The doubles team, Sam Balot and Daniel Henkin, was eliminated by Peck and Bryant of Southeast in the quarter-finals. Central's other doubles team, David Tanquary and Cassius Street, was defeated in the first round by the Strauk-Hess combination from Southwest.

Better results are expected in the Spring Tournament as practice will begin early for playoffs to determine who will represent Central in this sports event.

The year 1946-47 may truly be called the most successful year in the history of Central's Girls' Physical Education Department. Among the varied activities several Sportsdays were the highlights.

Chilling winds, bright sweaters and the unforgettable cry, "Ground, sticks, ground, sticks, ground, sticks, hit!" brought field hockey into the spotlight of sports early in the season. After weeks of practice, Virginia Brown, Gertrude Jones and Hazel Purnell, physical education instructors, produced a prize-winning team for Hockey Sportsday.

Basketball, as usual, was the most popular sport in the department. Basketball Sportsday brought another victory to the "gals in blue and white."

Volley ball, individual sports and modern dancing, outstanding parts of the varied program, taught teamwork and cooperation to the girls. Softball, the ever-popular final major sport of the year, brought the crack of bats again to Central Park.

Well-directed teams and tournaments are coloring the history of Central and the school life of our girl students.

As the new year of 1946-47 got under way, Central's R.O.T.C. Battalion took a hopeful look toward its goals to be realized before the year drew to a close. An entirely reorganized system of instruction was to be followed with many new subjects and weapons introduced.

The battalion was soon organized with M/Sgt. Herman F. Byram taking over as sergeant-instructor from Sgt. Carl Hoffman, who was retiring from the Army. Bob Egelston was appointed battalion commander; Bob Cawby, executive officer; James Watley, adjutant, and William Paradise, Fletcher Anderson and William Weaver comprised the remainder of the battalion staff.

Leading A, B and C companies were Captains Eugene DeLeve, Paul Wilson and Bill Miller, respectively. The seconds-in-command of these companies were First Lieutenants Joe Klassen, Kenneth Harris and Louis Anderson.

Heading the platoons for A Company were Lieutenants Ladd Hersh and William Baldwin; B Company, Lieutenants William Deemie and William Feld, and C Company, Lieutenants Charles Cannady and Bill Inman.

Central's rifle team established and maintained a good record throughout the year. By firing a score of 857, the team placed twenty-first among all R.O.T.C. units in the Fifth Army Area in competition for the William Randolph Hearst Trophy. In city competition the team placed fourth with the top scorers being Arthur Darrow, Glen Heck, Robert Baker, Louis Anderson and Ladd Hersh.

During the second semester the Central R.O.T.C. Battalion formed the Central Rifle Club, a member of the Junior National Rifle Association. Any member of the battalion was eligible for membership.

The social event of the year was the twenty-second annual Military Ball, held February 28, 1947. Miss Janet Marlowe was crowned Queen, with her two aides being Miss Virginia Coen and Miss Joyce Hopkins.

The new War Department program of instruction introduced this year such subjects as the following: World Military Situation, Military Organization, Military Courtesy, Hygiene and First Aid, Leadership, Drill, Exercise of Command, Physical Development, Individual Weapons, Marksmanship, Military History of the United States and Map Reading.

As the year progressed the first test of skills learned was the annual R.O.T.C. Circus held April 18. Next came Government Inspection May 8, and finally, Field Day May 16. These three events were completed with the Eagle cadets doing well, as always.

Thus, another successful year for the Central Reserve Officers Training Corps came to a close.

SENIOR PROPHECY

What Centralites will be doing in 1968 is a question of great interest to ye editors, so we have pushed time ahead twenty-one years to see just what the members of the class of '47 are doing.

We are at a presidental reception, held in the East Room of the White House, where Bob Jenkins, President of the U. S., is holding "court." The party is well under way and many celebrities are present. Discussing world affairs with the President are Carolyn Furnish and Joyce Powell, editors of the magazine, "The Radical," which greatly aided the President in his campaign. Focusing his camera on this illustrious group is Richard Lusby, photographer for the magazine. Bettie Travis, business manager, has joined the group. (Everyone wants to get into the act!)

Glancing at some of the groups, we see Dick Stewart, ambassador to Russia (he got there strictly through his "diplomacy"), Dick Reid, the filibustering senator from Missouri, and Ann Angle, the first woman speaker of the House. Listening in, we find that they are discussing the sensational scientist, Gilbert Nash, who is trying to disprove the Einstein theory.

The distinguished-looking man talking to Claire Hirsch, cartoonist for "The Radical," is Carl Brown, the President's personal physician. Dr. Brown has done research on the side and discovered a method of washing out peroxided hair.

We turn our gaze to the doorway as a gentleman with a military bearing enters. He is Gen. Bob Egelston, and as he greets the President we learn he is now commandant of West Point. Following immediately is the great actress, Doris Mott, escorted by Frank Koger, successor to Walter Winchell. Doris is starring in a play on Broadway with Cassius Street, the matinee idol of a million women. The play is under the direction of Virginia Hammer.

The two men who have campaign smiles on their faces are Johnny Trantham and H. B. Burchett, promotion managers for the President. They are attempting to get Sally Woosley, movie actress, to break her contract with Arthur, Inc., and help them in the campaign of 1972. She looks doubtful, but will, no doubt, succumb to the charms of these smiles. (Pepsodent, you know.)

Now making an entrance in true Ethel Barrymore style, is Noralee Benedict, one of the finest actresses on Broadway. Noralee has just returned from England where she financed a school for women athletes. The school will be run by Lonnie Eye and Wanda Harper. We hear, also, that Jerry Holmberg is going to study there.

The four men who have been dashing madly around the room are Jim George, Henry Schowengerdt, Roy Shackelford and Tommy Stanley, trying to recruit supporters for their club for the appreciation of Daniel Webster. At the moment they have cornered Joy Reese, who is co-editor of the first all-women newspaper. The other editor is Carolyn Sledd, and their publication manager is Walter Cummickel. Quite a success, we understand!

In the musical entertainment this evening we find Gene Kelsay, of night club fame, flanked by his chorus line consisting of Mary Sue Timmons, Mary Modlin, Dorothy Shearer, Carol Simons, Barbara Sharp and Dorothy Alcock. They sing, too! Also, the famous quartet from the New York Philharmonic is here this evening with their own arrangements of compositions. It is comprised of Darrel Maize, oboe; Louis Anderson, violin; Don Kellogg, French horn, and Phil Wyne, trumpet.

However, before the entertainment starts, the last guest arrives—Walter Langford, late as usual. Some day he's going to get a wristwatch. But can he tell time? Hm-m-m-m.

Well, everyone seems to be present; the guests are settled for the program, so ye eds take their leave.

Who can tell what time may bring?
